Le Corsaire

Gainesville Ballet Company, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit corporation, located across from the Virginia Gateway Shopping Center, is celebrating 10 years in Gainesville in the 2014-15 season. Gainesville Ballet won the 2012 Seefeldt Award for Arts Excellence, and is a values-based, innovative Company and School with international dancers and faculty, offering outstanding instruction in dance and music, while giving back to the community through donations and outreach.

Led by husband and wife Directors, Elysabeth Muscat and Rafik Hegab, Gainesville Ballet continues a tradition of excellence in the arts and improving the quality of life in Prince William County. The school has an exceptional, international faculty and offers numerous classes in both dance and music. The professional company, which performs at the Hylton Performing Arts Center, has wonderful dancers and exciting repertoire. The beautiful facilities were recently renovated. Gainesville Ballet regularly donates to civic organizations, programs for active duty service-members and veterans, educational outreach, and also offers a special needs dance program for young children.

Please join us in our 10 year celebration, and consider joining Gainesville Ballet as a sponsor. A community can be measured by its geography, its resources, its population and its politics but the richness of a community can also be found in its people, its culture, in the arts, and on the stage. Donations are tax-deductible. Sponsorship options are on the back page.
